One week on the old site against one week on the new. Two weeks of data, measured the same way.

Switchboard searches: 0 → 115 appearances

None of these appeared in the old site's week. Each matches a page that only exists on the new site.

Your biggest searches were shown more often

Terms recorded in both weeks, so this is a like-for-like change. Bars show size against your largest term.

SECTION 03

Five searches climbed Google's rankings

Lower is better. Clicks arrive in volume from about position 10 – page one.

WHAT PEOPLE SEARCHED	OLD SITE	NEW SITE	PLACES GAINED
electrician essendon area	48.9	37.9	↑ 11.0
heat pump hot water installers near me	63.2	55.9	↑ 7.3
residential electrician newport	22.7	21.0	↑ 1.7
electricians williamstown	12.6	11.8	↑ 0.8
electrician newport	34.8	34.5	↑ 0.3

SECTION 04

Your existing rankings held their position

The site-wide average reads 44.7 → 49.8, which looks like a drop. It is brand-new pages landing at positions 70–90 and pulling the average down – not a single existing term losing ground.

WHAT PEOPLE SEARCHED	OLD SITE	NEW SITE	MOVEMENT
electrician newport	34.8	34.5	↑ 0.3
electrician airport west	15.3	15.4	↓ 0.1
electricians williamstown	12.6	11.8	↑ 0.8
heat pump installation melbourne	57.2	57.1	↑ 0.1

SECTION 05

What happens next

One week shows direction, not results.

WEEKS 2–4

New pages find a real position

Switchboard, solar battery and EV charging climb out of the 70–90 range.

WEEKS 4–8

Suburb pages reach the first two pages

Newport is the biggest opportunity: 104 appearances a week at position 34.5.

WEEKS 8–12

Enquiries replace appearances as the measure

Once terms hit page one, reporting shifts to quote requests through the form.

How this data was gathered, and where to treat it carefully

10–16 August comes from Google Search Console. 3–9 August comes from the Top Search Queries report in the old Wix dashboard, which draws on the same Google data.

The Wix export double-lists some terms and its rows do not add up to its own totals, so old-site term-level figures are indicative. The weekly totals – 1,211 appearances and 4 clicks – are reliable, and every percentage above is calculated from those. “New” means a term did not appear in last week's report, rather than that it was definitively zero.

Click volumes are small in absolute terms, so percentages will swing hard week to week until the numbers grow. The reliable signals this week are the rise in appearances and the three service categories that appeared, which the old site's week recorded nothing for.
